

TRIPURA BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

As the Pandemic situation has not sufficiently improved in the State, the Expert Committee have decided to cancel the Examinations of Continuing, Compartmental, External & External Compartmental which were declared to be held w.e.f. 10th August, 2021 to 20th September, 2021 vide No. F. 29(1)/LETT/EXAM/TBSE/ 2018, dated 01-07-2021; and the policy for tabulation of marks of the said Exams, which had been prepared by the Expert Committee, has been approved by the Govt. of Tripura on 19-07-2021.

POLICY FOR TABULATION OF MARKS FOR CONTINUING, COMPARTMENTAL, EXTERNAL & EXTERNAL COMPARTMENTAL CANDIDATES OF MADHYAMIK AND H.S. (+2 STAGE) (INCLUDING MADRASA ALIM AND MADRASA FAZIL), 2021.

Madhyamik , 2021

(a) Continuing Candidates:

- I. The marks of the 3 (three) highest performing subjects (theory portion) in the last appeared Madhyamik Exam, as Regular/ Continuing candidate, will be carried forward in the theory portion of the respective subjects; and the average of these 3 (three) highest marks will be awarded in the remaining 2 (two) subjects.
- II. If a candidate is fully absent/has given exam in 1(one) subject in his/her first appearing year as Regular candidate in the year 2018/ 2019/2020, and he/she has not appeared in any subsequent examinations, he/she will have to appear in the Madhyamik Exam, conducted by TBSE, when the situation will become conducive to hold the said exam.
- III. If a candidate is partially absent in his/her last appearing year but has given exam in at least 2(two) subjects as Regular/Continuing candidate, the average marks of 2 (two) highest performing subjects (theory portion) in the last appeared Madhyamik Exam, as Regular/Continuing candidate will be awarded in the theory portion of all remaining subjects.

(b) Compartmental /External Compartmental Candidate:

I. The average marks of highest 3 (three) subjects in his/her last appeared Madhyamik Examination will be awarded in the compartmental subject(s).

(c) External Candidate: All External Candidates (A & B) were instructed to sit in the Pre- Board Exams of Class X and the schools were instructed to take their Pre-Board Exam out of 100 marks in each subject.

I. The highest marks obtained among the three performing subjects of Pre-Board Exam of Class X conducted by the Directorate of Secondary Education, will be awarded in the two non-performing subjects.

II. If any External candidate (A & B) has not appeared in any of the three subjects (Language-I, Science & Social Science) of Pre-Board Exam of Class X, conducted by the Directorate of Secondary Education, he/she will have to appear in the Madhyamik Exam, which will be conducted by TBSE when the situation becomes conducive.

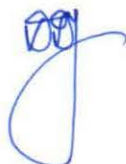

H.S. (+2 Stage), 2021

(a) Continuing Candidates:

I. The highest marks in Elective Subject (theory portion) obtained in the last performing H.S. (+2 Stage) Exam will be awarded in all the subjects in the theory portion.

II. If a candidate is fully absent in his/her first appearing year/has not given examination even in a single Elective subject as Regular candidate in the year 2018/2019/2020, and he/she has not appeared in any subsequent examinations, he/she will have to appear in the H.S (+2 Stage) Exam, conducted by TBSE, when the situation will become conducive to hold the said exam.

III. If a candidate is partially absent in his/her last appearing year as Regular/Continuing candidate, the highest marks in Elective subject (theory portion) in the last appeared H.S. (+2 Stage) Exam, as Regular/Continuing candidate will be awarded in the theory portion of all subjects. If the candidate has not appeared in any Elective subject examination, he/she will have to appear in the H.S. (+2 stage) Exam conducted by TBSE, when the situation will become conducive to hold the said exam.

(b) Compartmental /External Compartmental Candidate:

- I. The average marks of highest 3 (three) subjects in his/her last appeared H.S. (+2 Stage) Exam will be awarded in the compartmental subject(s).

(c) External Candidate:

All External Candidates (A & B) were instructed to sit in the Pre- Board Exams of Class XII and the schools were instructed to take their Pre-Board Exam out of 100 marks in each subject.

- I. The marks obtained in the performing subject(s) of Pre-Board Exam of Class XII, conducted by the Directorate of Secondary Education, will be awarded in the respective subject(s) of H.S. (+2 Stage) Exam. The highest marks obtained in performing subject(s) will be awarded in non-performing subject(s).
- II. If any External candidate (A & B) has not appeared in any subject of pre-Board Exam of Class XII, conducted by the Directorate of Secondary Education, he/she will have to appear in the H.S. (+2 Stage) Exam, which will be conducted by TBSE when the situation becomes conducive.

NB:

1. The Single Subject, Improvement Test & Equivalence Category Exams will be conducted by TBSE, when the situation will become conducive.
2. The candidates who are dissatisfied with the marks received through the above criteria, their exams will be conducted by TBSE, when the situation becomes conducive for holding such examinations.

19.07.2021
(Dr. Dulal Dey)
SECRETARY